Sensei Info Sheet

Inspired by hanging scrolls of Asian art, Sensei's small-scale embossing projects such as a classic aura it is easy to imagine the silk and cotton showcases displaying a work of calligraphy or a painting. These "Kakeji" were mounted and hung in alcoves or on a wall perfectly suited to the thoughtful layout of eastern architecture. Sensei's 16 color palette is equally as thoughtful, allowing for integration of this delightful pattern into any style of interior. Hues are represented on soft metallic and matte grounds, and are available in hues from brushstroke black, matcha green, and ceremonial gold, to temple white and horizon peach, Sensei's vertical geometric invokes a sense of order, calm and harmony for elevated interiors.
